In 25 Year Span, Coldwell Banker Gundaker Donates $1.5 Million to Ronald McDonald House Charities®

Company Helps to Provide a Home Away from Home

ST. LOUIS, MO (February 1, 2011) – Coldwell Banker Gundaker has made giving back to the community a tradition. Over the past 25 years, Coldwell Banker Gundaker and its associates have donated $1.5 million to Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Metro St. Louis (RMHC of Metro St. Louis) through charity auctions as well as company and local office events.

This phenomenal dedication has helped provide a loving and supportive home for families of seriously-ill children traveling to St. Louis for medical treatment. This year alone, Coldwell Banker Gundaker associates raised $117,000 for the local RMHC of Metro St. Louis at the company's 25th Annual Auction.

“The unselfish and generous efforts of our sales associates and employees make it possible for families to have a home away from home,” said Jim Dohr, president of Coldwell Banker Gundaker. “Our team has gone above and beyond with its generosity both financially and with the giving of their time. We are proud to give back to our communities and to have helped make a difference in people’s lives.”

In September, Coldwell Banker Gundaker was recognized for its 25-year support of the RMHC of Metro St. Louis at the pre-opening reception at the new house at St. John’s Mercy Hospital. It has the distinction of being the 300th Ronald McDonald House in the country. Coldwell Banker Gundaker executives Jim Dohr, Carole McCabe, and Glenn Vatterott along with Dan Harbaugh, president of the Ronald McDonald House unveiled a special piece of artwork dedicated to Coldwell Banker Gundaker that hangs in the house’s conference room.

“Ronald McDonald House Charities of Metro St. Louis is incredibly proud to partner with Coldwell Banker Gundaker,” said Dan Harbaugh, RMHC of Metro St. Louis president. “The company has gone above and beyond in their donations for the past 25 years. The dedication of the countless agents and corporate employees truly make the Ronald McDonald House a home. We are so grateful for the company’s generosity.”

About RMHC of Metro St. Louis

The Ronald McDonald House provides a “home-away-from-home” for families of seriously-ill children traveling to St. Louis for medical treatment. The facility has grown from an eight-bedroom facility in 1981, to now include three houses, eight extended-stay apartments, and three Ronald McDonald Family Rooms – one at St. John's Mercy Children's Hospital, one at St. Louis Children's Hospital, and one at SSM Cardinal Glennon Children's Medical Center. The Ronald McDonald House provides comfort, care and lodging for up to 59 families every day of the year.
