

REAL ESTATE BRIEFS

Director named

Coldwell Banker Gundaker recently named JANICE NOLAN the director of training and development of the company's St. Peters/O'Fallon office. Her responsibilities include agent training and development through individual and group coaching.

J. Nolan

Nolan has a 27-year history in the real estate industry, having started her career as a leasing agent and growing professionally into sales and training roles. As a former broker and real estate company owner, she has developed systems to keep agents motivated and goal oriented.

Loan program

St. Peters is accepting applications for its 2011 Urban County Home Improvement Loan Program, in which eligible applicants can receive up to $5,000 through a no-interest, five-year forgivable loan.

To be eligible, an applicant must be a resident and homeowner in St. Peters who has not previously participated in the program; must have lived in the home for at least one year; and must not exceed household income guidelines established by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Applications will be available until 5 p.m. Aug. 22 and can be downloaded at www.stpetersmo.net/cdbg-programs.aspx#HomeHelp or obtained at St. Peters City Hall. For more information call 636-279-8279, option 2.

Qualified participants will be selected based on a random drawing scheduled for 6 p.m. Aug. 23.

