Coldwell Banker Gundaker's Fenton Office is Collecting Items for Hospitalized Veterans

FENTON, MO (November 7, 2011) – Coldwell Banker Gundaker's Fenton office is planning to make the holidays a little brighter for local area hospitalized veterans. By teaming up with the US Marine Corp. the office is collecting items to fill gift bags. The Volunteers of the Corp. will personally distribute the gift bags on Christmas day to the men and women who have been injured while serving our country.

"This is the third year that we will be collecting items for hospitalized veterans," said Glenna Ard, Fenton branch manager. "We hope collectively our donations will pay tribute to the veterans who have served our country and help bring a smile to their face."

The office is seeking the following items:

- Gloves (stretch)
- Hats (beanie-style)
- Socks
- Toothbrushes/toothpaste
- Shampoo
- Lotion
- Lip balm
- Deodorant
- Candy (regular and sugar-free)
- Individually wrapped snacks (chips, cookie, pretzels)
- Decks of cards/puzzle books
- Notepads/pens
- Sweatshirts/pants
- Wii games/controllers

Please drop-off donations at Coldwell Banker Gundaker, 516 Old Smizer Mill Road in Fenton by December 14. If you need a pick-up, call 636-343-1500.
