Coldwell Banker Gundaker's Irvine Team Moves to the Chesterfield/West Office

CHESTERFIELD, MO (November 3, 2011) – Even Realtors move. Coldwell Banker Gundaker's top team has relocated to the company's Chesterfield/West office located at 111 Chesterfield Towne Center.

Colleen Lawler, who leads the Irvine Team, was the company's top sales associate for 2010. Lawler closed more than $35 million in sales and 134 transactions. She has been one of the company's top producing agents for 22 years and oversees the day-to-day operations for the Irvine Team. Lawler is a 23 year veteran of residential real estate sales with a combined career volume of more than $919 million. She started her career with Coldwell Banker Gundaker in 1988 and is a member of Coldwell Banker's President's Premier Club.

"I am thrilled to have Colleen and the Irvine Team join our office," said Jason Pashia, branch manager. "They are professional and provide the utmost in customer service to buyers and sellers. Colleen is a great leader who represents our company and industry well and is dedicated to her customers."

As a longtime West County area resident, Colleen is active in the community including being a member of the Ballwin Metro West Rotary Club and volunteering with the American Cancer Society, in which the Irvine Team will be participating and sponsoring a Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure team. She also supports Ronald McDonald House Charities®. In addition, she is a member of the St. Louis Association of Realtors, a Certified Distressed Property Expert and has an ePro designation.

"The team is excited to plant roots in our new location and take advantage of all the tools and office support," said Lawler. "The associates and staff have made us feel welcome."

In addition to Lawler, the Irvine Team members are Kate Thompson, Caroline Whiting, Sue Eagleston, Joyce Reeves, Beth Armbruster and Debbie Londoff.
